FAQs

- Q: Can my entire patrol enter a dish or is it just one person? A: The cook off is designed to judge a dish, an individual or a pair or an entire patrol can prepare that one dish - yes, your patrol can enter one dish.
- Q: Can I enter more than one dish? A: Yes, you or your team may enter more than one dish per division.

Top rule of the contest: HAVE FUN!

- To enter the Scout or Adult divisions the participant must be registered for the 2017 Spring Rendezvous weekend package or day pass. To enter the Open division, a person must have a SR17 registration wrist band or pay $5 entry fee.
- Main preparation and cooking must be done at cook-off site.
- Precooking of ingredients at camp is allowed. (The reason for this rule is so that others can watch how things are prepared and for fellowship)
- You must turn in a printed copy of your recipe, no recipe, 5 points off.
- You cannot use the same dish for another division. Each division must have it's own dish.
- Cub Scouts can enter divisions 5 and 6. In division 6 you get to play with the big boys! Cubs must have an adult partner, NO EXCEPTIONS!
- You can start cooking at 2:00 PM.

Judging results are final.

*Remember to start cooking according to your cooking time.
You want your dish done and not over cooked.*

Judging will be at: 4:30 p.m. • All cooking must be finished by: 4:15 p.m.
